All-Star Sports Week Continues to Grow

The twelfth annual All-Star Sports Week once again returns to Huntsville with some great additions for our administrators and coaches. Several banquet opportunities will greet attendees this year. Learning Through Sports will host a Sportmanship Luncheon on Wednesday for qualified schools and Coaches Outreach will sponsor a breakfast free of charge for attendees on Thursday morning.

For those seeking educational opportunities, the National Center for Sports Safety will offer the PREPARE Sport First Aid course free of charge for those who preregister. The Alabama State Department of Education will offer a free School Bus Recertification Clinic on Tuesday for those interested in recertification. Urology Centers of Alabama will once again offer free prostate screening for coaches on Thursday.

As always, the Athletic Directors and Principals sessions will be very informative and useful for both the newly hired and the veteran. A session for new principals and athletic directors will be added this year along with a session on computer updates from the AHSAA. There will be several interactive sessions that will provide each of you the opportunity to ask questions and share ideas on various topics.

We will again offer leadership training courses on Tuesday and Thursday along with our Certified Athletic Administrator Exam (CAA) on Thursday.

Our committees have secured nationally recognized speakers for clinics in nine individual sports. This should be one of our strongest clinics to date. These clinics will provide a special opportunity for you to increase your knowledge and share ideas with your peers.

Our Expo will once again feature numerous nation-wide vendors to allow you to see the latest in products related to your sport.

As you can see, a lot will be going on this summer. You deserve the best for what you do for the student athletes of our state and we hope that you will join us for these exciting events. Register early and come be a part of this special event in Huntsville. Once again, thank you for what you do in the "trenches" each and every day!
