Leadership The Key For A Positive Athletic Experience

It's hard to believe time has passed so quickly in this new school year and championship play is underway for fall sports.

One of the key factors in the creation of the AHSAA was to conduct championship play. In fact, state associations across the country were formed for that purpose.

It's such an exciting time for our student-athletes to be able to perform on the greatest stage in their sport. It's also a time when many important lessons are learned through athletics.

During this special time, it is critical for our administrators and coaches to embrace their roles as leaders and to understand that this leadership role carries great professional responsibility.

John Quincy Adams, the sixth president of the United States once said, "If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader."

These words are so true.

The actions of administrators and coaches should inspire students, parents and fans to accomplish more and accomplish it in the right way.

Consequently, the actions of students, parents and fans should reflect positively on your school. An excellent gauge of how these actions reflect on your school may be in how others are treated when they come to your campus for an athletic event. It leaves a lasting impression for everyone.

Steve Savarese
Executive Director

Ask yourself these questions:

"What will your visitors say about you and your school when they leave town?"

"What's being said about you at the dinner table in their homes?"

Similar questions can be used to gauge your effectiveness in impacting your own students and fans.

"What lesson did you teach today?"

"Did you teach them to yell at others or communicate effectively?"

I'm always inspired when I go to an athletic event and see the cheer squads from both schools holding hands before a contest or perform a cheer together.

It's heartwarming to see students and fans get together at a local church after a game for a "Fifth Quarter" social.

It's such an exciting time for our student-athletes to be able to perform on the greatest stage in their sport. It's also a time when many important lessons are learned through athletics.

As leaders, we should encourage everyone to come together to enjoy what is right and good about education-based athletics.

I also want to remind you that the safety of everyone attending an athletic event at your campus is vital, but especially for contest officials. Always insure that the contest officials have a secure place to park their vehicles and have an escort to and from the playing area and their locker room.

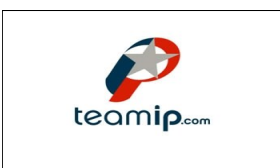

And finally, as championship play continues, remember that for some student-athletes and their families, this may be the last time they ever compete in high school athletics. Moms may be washing those uniforms for the last time.

What will they take away from their last competitive experience?

Your leadership throughout this memorable time in their lives will have a major impact on the answer to that question.

Thanks for your commitment to educational-based interscholastic athletics.

Outside Participation Rule Clearly Defined In Handbook

We at the AHSAA are questioned often by member schools about the Outside Participation Rule.

Some are confused about what outside participation exactly is and when the window of opportunity begins and ends. It is incumbent on each coach and administrator to understand this eligibility question thoroughly.

Outside participation is defined as any activity involving clubs, outside sports camps or any participation not associated with the AHSAA. Member schools have allotted time for this involvement and must stay in compliance within the student-athlete's sports season.

Rule I – Eligibility addresses Outside Par-

Tony Stallworth
Associate Executive Director

ticipation in Section 6 on page 23 of the 2012-13 AHSAA Handbook. It is listed below.

SECTION 6. OUTSIDE PARTICIPATION RULE. A student who is a member of any school athletic team (grades 7-12) may not participate (includes practice) on a non-school team in the same sport during the school season of that sport. A student who is a member of any high school athletic team may not participate in an outside sport activity in the same sport during the school season of that sport.

Note: Olympic Development programs are exempted from the Outside Participation Rule. One evaluation per month has been approved by the AHSAA.

Note: Private individual instruction is not considered an outside sports activity.

A student who violates this rule becomes ineligible to compete on that school team or in that school sports activity for the remainder of that school season. Any student who participates on an outside team after the school sports season begins is ineligible to join that school team for the remainder of that season.

A team's season begins the day of that team's first contest and ends when that team's season has been completed. An ineligible student cannot participate with an outside team after the school team's season starts and then join the school team upon becoming eligible.

Alabama-Mississippi Game On Live TV

For the second year in a row, we are pleased to announce that the Alabama-Mississippi All-Star Football Game, set to be played at Cramton Bowl in Montgomery Dec. 15, will be televised live by Raycom over its network of stations in Alabama and Mississippi. Kickoff has been set for 12 noon.

Alvin Briggs
Director, AHSADCA

Alabama holds an 18-7 lead in the annual all-star game, which pits the two states' top senior high school football standouts. Alabama won last year's contest 31-12 with current University of Alabama freshman running back sensation T.J. Yeldon named the Alabama team MVP.

Having the contest live over such a wide market is a big boost to the annual all-star game. Raycom stations in Alabama include WAFF (Ch. 48) in Huntsville, WBRC (Fox 6) in Birmingham and WSFA (Ch. 12) in Montgomery. WALA (Ch. 10) in Mobile has also committed to the airing the contest live.

We can't thank our broadcast friends at Raycom enough.

We have a busy month ahead for our coaches and student-athletes with the Elite Eight State Volleyball Championships at Birmingham's Crossplex Oct. 31-Nov. 1; the AHSAA State Cross Country Championships at Moulton's Oakville Indian Mounds Park & Museum Nov. 10; and the AHSAA State Swimming and Diving Championships at Auburn's James E. Martin Aquatics Center on Nov. 30-Dec. 1.

The Super 6 Football State Championships will be Dec. 6-7 at Auburn's Jordan-Hare Stadium, and the first four weeks of the state playoffs will be at home sites across the state Nov. 9, 16, 23 and 30.

The state playoffs are always exciting times for our students, coaches, administrators and communities.

One last item is the AHSAA Sports Hall of Fame selection meeting set for Nov. 15 at the AHSAA Office in Montgomery. This is a very important meeting to select the inductees for the Class of 2013, scheduled to be enshrined at the induction banquet on Monday, March 18 at the Renaissance Center at Montgomery.

Alabama Roster Named For Dec. 15 Alabama-Mississippi Game

Jeremy Johnson of Carver-Montgomery and Nick Mullens of Spain Park have been selected as the quarterbacks on the 40-player Alabama All-Star Team roster which will face Mississippi in the 26th annual Alabama-Mississippi All-Star Football Game Dec. 15.

The squad, comprised of current high school seniors, was announced by Alvin Briggs, Director of the Alabama High School Athletic Directors & Coaches Association.

The annual contest, an event of the AHSADCA and the Alabama High School Athletic Association, will be played for the second straight year at Montgomery's Cramton Bowl. Kickoff for the afternoon contest is 12 noon. Alabama holds an 18-7 edge in the series played at Mobile's Ladd-Peebles Stadium from 1988-2010. Alabama won last year's game 31-12 with current University of Alabama freshman running back T.J. Yeldon earning MVP honors for Alabama.

Head coach for the Alabama All-Stars is Mountain Brook Coach Chris Yeager.

Johnson, a 6-foot-6 Auburn early commitment, has led the Wolverines to an 8-1 record this season while completing 88-of-133 passes for 1,600 yards and 19 touchdowns in his first six games. He had thrown only four interceptions and had a completion percentage rate of 66.2 percent. A strong runner who has good speed, Johnson had rushed for 447 yards and four touchdowns and was averaging 10.4 yards per carry.

He is fast emerging as one of the top quarterback prospects in the nation in the Class of 2013.

Mullens, who is averaging well over 200 yards passing per game this season, passed for 2,833 yards and 22 touchdowns last season. He's on a pace to go over 3,000 yards this year. Still undecided, the 6-2 quarterback is being recruited by several Division I schools from the Sun Belt Conference and Conference USA.

"Once again I think the selection committee has selected an outstanding group of players," said Briggs. Several have already committed to Auburn and Alabama as well as Florida State, Texas A&M, Ole Miss, Vanderbilt, Mississippi State and Nebraska.

Running backs selected are Foley's Cedrix Reed, Clark Quisenberry of Enterprise, Joshua Walker of Austin and Johnathan Ford of New Hope. Ford, a Vanderbilt commitment, has rushed for over 1,000 yards this season.

Alabama's squad features at least 20 players who have already announced college choices, including six to Auburn University and three to the University of Alabama. Verbal commits for the Tigers include highly-touted linebacker Reuben Foster of Auburn High School, defensive lineman Dee Liner of Muscle Shoals, wide receivers Earnest Robinson of Pinson Valley and Jason Smith of McGill-Toolen, defensive back Kamryn Melton of Dothan and quarterback Jeremy Johnson of Carver-Montgomery. Crimson Tide commitments include defensive back/athlete Ardarius Stewart of Fultondale, defensive lineman Darius Paige of Foley and offensive lineman Grant Hill of Huntsville.

Foreign Exchange Students Eligible For One Year

A foreign exchange student attending a member school located in the school zone where the host family resides is eligible to receive a waiver of the Transfer Rule for a period of one year provided this is the student's first year as a foreign exchange student. The student must be assigned by a program on the current Advisory List of International Educational Travel and Exchange Programs published by the Council on Standards for International Educational Travel.

This waiver is granted under the stipulation that a foreign exchange student meets all other eligibility requirements of the AHSAA and has not received a high school diploma or its equivalent.

A Foreign Exchange Student Registration Form (No. 4) must be completed and filed with the AHSAA State Office before eligibility can be determined on any foreign exchange student. After approval, the student must be submitted to the State Office via online reporting.

Super Regional Volleyball Tournaments

A special thank you to all who supported the Super Regional volleyball tournaments in Huntsville and Montgomery Oct. 26-27. It was an opportunity for 192 teams to compete in a "state tournament" atmosphere – many for the first time. Fans were great, teams were great and the experiences for the participants will provide lifelong memories.

Congratulations to those who qualified for the Elite Eight state tournament at Birmingham's Crossplex. It is a beautiful arena and a perfect setting for our state tournament. Check out the results daily online at www.ahsaa.com. Also, check out the live webcasts of all six finals on Thursday, Nov. 1. The links can be accessed at www.ahsaa.com.

We also are looking forward to the AHSAA Cross Country Championships (Nov. 10 at Moulton), the State Cheer Competition at Wallace-Hanceville (Nov. 17) and the AHSAA Swimming and Diving Championships (Nov. 30-Dec. 1 at Auburn University).

Football Officials Test Communications Equipment

Last fall the AHSAA launched an experiment using the Vokkero Officiating Communication System aimed at improving communication between officials in a contest. Football and soccer are the two sports where the Vokkero headsets have been used by the AHSAA. I see the potential for use in several other sports also.

Greg Brewer
AHSAA
Director of Officials

Vokkero allows the entire on-field officiating crew to remain in contact with each other during game play by employing small transceivers in belt packs worn by the officials. The system includes microphones that transmit voice messages to the other officials. Officials have found the system aids game management, particularly with 'no huddle' offenses, calling out pre-snap keys, alerts of unusual formations, handling substitutions and penalty administration.

The reaction of the officials using them has been positive. Some of the concerns dealing with static interference, distraction and talking over one another turned out to be no problem at all. Participating coaches in the contests have given favorable approval for the use of the headsets as well.

Officials who have used the headsets confirm what we had hoped. Instant communications helps to improve the quality of officiating and speeds up the game. We are excited to continue our evaluation this year and are pleased to be out front in testing this technology.

The Vokkero System was tested by the officiating crew working the Class 5A contest between Muscle Shoals and Cullman played Oct 26 at Cullman. All members of the seven-man officiating crew were equipped with the communications system during the contest.

When a player fouls on the other side of the field, for example, the closest official simply asks the calling official what the foul was and who committed it and conveys the answer to the coach. They do not have to yell across the field or wait any length of time until the calling official gets close enough to tell the coach. Penalty administration in football takes less time and is more accurate due to the communication process.

The AHSAA plans on using these devices again at Auburn at the 2012 Super 6 state football championships and will be looking to use them in other sports championships as well.

Vokkero is widely used in international soccer by FIFA, UEFA and CONCACAF. Last season, the AHSAA became the first organization to work with Vokkero in football games. Building upon that success, the Southeastern Conference has been piloting the system and has given it excellent reviews.

An identical system was tested by an SEC officiating crew in the Oct. 27 Tennessee-South Carolina game at Columbia, S.C.

Busy Month Ahead For Sports Mini-Clinics

November will be a busy month for AHSAA Mini-Clinics. The month will begin with the Baseball Mini-Clinic and will end with the Track and Field Mini-Clinic.

The Baseball Mini-Clinic was originally scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 6 but, because we want everyone to exercise their right to vote, it has been rescheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 7. The speakers for this clinic will be Mark Mincher and Jay Mitchell.

Mincher, the former baseball coach at Huntsville High School, retired after three decades of dedicated service to high school student-athletes. A dedicated baseball man, Mincher guided Huntsville to eight area championships, 18 state playoff appearances and culminated his outstanding coaching career when the Panthers won a state championship in 2011. He will be speaking on the topics of "Offensive Fundamentals and Drills" and "Positive Coach/Parent Relationships".

Mitchell, of Mars Hill Bible School, played collegiately at Freed Hardeman University. He has a 402-204 prep coaching record with two state championships, including the Class 3A state title in 2012.

The month will close with an exciting Track and Field Mini-Clinic, which will feature veteran high school coach Greg Echols of Mountain Brook and a well-known college coach, the University of Alabama's Dick Booth.

Booth will be discussing "Triple Jump/Jump Training". The Hall of Fame coach has more than 40 years of coaching knowledge and experience to share with our high school coaches.

Denise Ainsworth
Assistant Director

Echols will be discussing "Middle Distance" and "Hurdles". The Alabama High School Sports Hall of Fame member is well-known in our state with many years of experience and a proven record of winning state championships. This clinic should prove to be very beneficial for the entire track community, whether the coach is a beginner or a seasoned veteran.

Itineraries for both clinics, along with the entire schedule of mini-clinics, can be found online at www.ahsaa.com at the "Coaches" page link. Should you have questions or comments, contact me at dainsworth@ahsaa.com or 334-263-6994. Thanks for all you do for the athletes of our great state.

LTC 504, LTC 506 Offered In December

The AHSAA plans to offer two opportunities for professional development on Saturday, Dec. 8 at the AHSAA office located at 7325 Halcyon Summit Drive in Montgomery.

The day will begin at 8 a.m. (sharp) with the Leadership Training Course 504: Athletic Administration: Legal Issues 1 (Risk Management). This class has in-depth coverage of all aspects of liability for sports injuries and risk management and will conclude at noon.

A second class, LTC 506: Athletic Administration: Legal Issues II (Title IX, Sexual Harassment), will begin at 1 p.m. This course has in-depth coverage of compliance issues regarding Title IX and gender equity in an interscholastic athletic program. This course conclude at 5 p.m.

Attendees may choose to take one or both classes. Registration is online and MUST be completed by Nov. 15 to allow for the procurement of textbooks.

The Certified Athletic Administrators (CAA) exam will also be given on this date beginning at 10 a.m. Anyone wishing to sit for this exam in hopes of receiving their CAA certification should follow the guidelines as set forth on the National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association (NIAAA) website, www.niaaa.org. Deadlines for all applications to sit for this exam are due by Nov. 8.
